

Choosing Kelly Ramsdale & Associates, Inc.

Your national plaintiff-only structured settlement consulting firm

When choosing Kelly Ramsdale & Associates you can have confidence that you have selected a knowledgeable broker who takes the time to educate you and your client about structured settlements and provides the respect, creativity, dependability, and professionalism that you and your clients deserve. You can count on us to have:

- A big picture view of your client's situation.
- The desire and energy to invest in you and your client to assure your understanding.
- A commitment to building a solid long-term working relationship with you and your client.
- The structure experience and professional network that can be tapped to solve problems.
- The experience of having worked in a wide variety of complex plaintiff situations.

Contact us as soon as possible to bring us into the case so that we can start assisting you and your client with personalized settlement options and plans.

We love helping our clients. We offer caring, creative, professional, and dependable service unequalled in our industry. To us, it's personal.sm

Caring | Creative | Professional | Dependable