

HE WANTS YOUR MONEY. YOU NEED IT.

Keep more of your attorney fees.

Don't hand over any more than you have to! You can defer income taxes on your fees by using a structured settlement if you have a case nearing settlement. This is an easy, innovative, safe, time-proven way of deferring taxes, saving you thousands of dollars.

You can structure your fees to provide for:

- Steady cash flow to weather the ups and downs of your practice
- Your children's education
- Tailored retirement income streams for you and your spouse.

Structured attorney fees should be an integral part of planning for your future and achieving your financial goals.
